

Oliver's Name Not Mentioned by Commission

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Highway Commission did not bring up replacing Highway Director F. R. Oliver at its monthly meeting today and commission vice chairman Wayne Hampton of Stuttgart said the commission had not even discussed the possibility.

"We haven't even talked about it," Hampton said. "You know we've been pretty shaken up about the death of our former chairman." Chairman John Crain of Wilson died several weeks ago. Reports circulated around the capitol shortly before Crain's death that Oliver, who has been director of highways since 1959, would be replaced by state Purchasing Agent Mack Sturgis.

Oliver has consistently refused to deny that he had been asked to resign.

Hampton said there was scant possibility that the commission would discuss replacing Oliver at its meeting today.

Hampton made these remarks in an interview and repeated them after the commission concluded its regular monthly meeting without acting on the Oliver matter.

The commission's first regular order of business was adoption of a resolution commemorating Crain.

In other action, the commission:

Gave the Faulkner County judge authority to remove and use an old bridge over East Cadron Creek.

Gave the Harrison Urban Renewal Agency title to a segment of surplus land obtained last year from the Arkansas and Ozarks Railway.

Authorized expenditure of $22,500 for printing 200,000 copies of the 1963 highway map.

Voted to go along with Mississippi in requesting the federal government to extend U.S. Highway 49 from Clarkdale, Miss., across the Helena bridge and along Arkansas Highway 6 to an intersection with U.S. Highway 70 near Brinkley.

The commission was to hear delegations from several parts of the state later today.

JEWEL COLLECTION ON SALE — Pat Carmen wears and is surrounded by some of the 37-piece, million-dollar Marion Davies jewel collection, one of the finest private collections in the world, and reportedly the most valuable ever offered for sale in the west. The gems will go on display in San Francisco. Miss Davies was a comedienne and actress for many years and a close friend of the late William Randolph Hearst. The diamond pendant, dangling left, is 29 carats and worth $300,000.

$200 Netted From Band Paper Drive

Corn Belt Hatcheries contributed two trucks and drivers to aid the Hope Band Boosters Saturday in taking newspaper and magazines to Stephens, Ark.

Nearly $200 was realized from the sale of paper collected by the Band Boosters the last 3 months and there is more paper in the coliseum now.

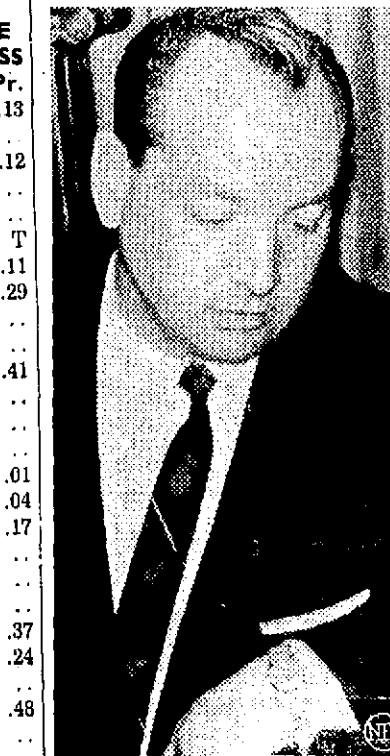

Phil McLarty, Lance Jones, Jimmie O'Neal, Wayne Grant, Mickey Holt, Wayne Fowler, Gary Rogers and Kenneth Ray Williams made the trip to Stephens. Ricky Stone, Phil White, Malcolm Hinton, Tony Smith and Steve Crosby helped load the paper. The next collection will be Sunday, March 31. This is the start of the clean up campaign.

Feed Growers Reminded of Deadline

Friday, March 22, is the final date for farmers desiring to participate in the 1963 Feed Grain program to sign such intentions with the ASCS Office.

All producers of corn, barley and grain sorghum should note this date and contact the ASCS county office at the earliest possible date but not later than Friday, March 22.

Farmers interested in this program may obtain full information by calling at the County office.

TRUTH WILL BE TOLD — George Burnett, the Atlanta, Ga. insurance man who allegedly furnished the information that led to charges of rigging in the 1962 Alabama-Georgia football game, said in Atlanta that "the truth will eventually be told in full." Burnett said he overheard a phone conversation in which Georgia Athletic Director Wallace Butts was giving Georgia plays to Paul (Bear) Bryant, coach of Alabama.

Fading Winter Punches East Half of U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fading winter landed storm-packed punches across broad areas in the eastern half of the nation and heavy rains today posed new flood threats in some states.

The wild outbreak of weather Tuesday included heavy snow, rain, hail, tornadoes and damaging wind storms. Storms in Indiana claimed at least three lives.

A snowstorm which swept from the Dakotas to Michigan, dumping a foot of snow in many sections, tapered off during the night as it moved into the Northeast.

Heavy snow warnings were issued for northern New York, New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine, with more than six inches in most areas. Gale warnings were posted along the New England coast from Block Island, R.I., to Eastport, Maine.

Tornadoes and damaging wind storms struck areas in Indiana, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and Kentucky. Several persons were injured and there was heavy property damage.

The twisters struck small communities in southern and central Indiana and killed two women in Beck's Mill. A girl drowned in a water-filled ditch in Indianapolis during a severe rain and wind storm. The tornado which swept across Crete caused an estimated $100,000 damage.

Violent winds swept areas in Kentucky, destroying and damaging several homes, a drive-in theater and several other buildings. Heaviest property damage, estimated at $250,000, was in Clinton County, in the southeast part of the state. Louisville also was lashed by a rain and wind storm. The storms in the state injured at least nine persons.

In Harpersville, Miss., several persons were hurt when winds toppled brick walls of the high school gymnasium during a basketball game. A tornado hit Portland, in northern Tennessee, causing extensive property damage. Widespread damage also was caused by severe wind storms in middle and east Tennessee. Twisters also hit the northern edge of Decatur, in north-central Alabama, and in Bellefonte, Miss.

Heavy rains caused flooding of several streams in north central West Virginia and in parts of Indiana and Southern Illinois. Several hundred persons were evacuated from their homes.

The spring season starts at 3:20 a.m. (EST) Thursday but heavy snow covers many northern sections. In Houlton, Maine, the snow depth is 50 inches. The mercury was near zero this morning. Houghton, Mich., reported three inches of fresh snow in a six-hour period for a total of 19 inches on the ground.

Faubus Biding Time on Extra Session Move

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus is biding his time, watching developments before considering a special session of the legislature.

Faubus had said during the past General Assembly that if a bill to increase driver's license fees to $3 was not passed, giving more funds to the State Police, a special session might be necessary.

The bill failed.

Tuesday, Faubus announced options to an immediate decision on the special session.

He indicated he may consider cutting state police services and said if a special session is called, it won't be until around July 1. "There's no hurry," he said. "We have time to wait and see what develops on other fronts. If the poll tax is outlawed, we might want to handle voter registration at a special session and we could take care of this and the state police budget too."

Almost all of the operating money of the state police comes from the current $2 license fee. Faubus said several other states have the $3 fee and he thought if people want more services from the department, they should be willing to pay for them.

U.S. Opposed to Cuba Raids by Commandos

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has put itself on record as being strongly opposed to hit and run commando raids on Cuba by anti-Castro exiles. But two exile group leaders said today that "our attacks will continue until the final liberation of Cuba."

The State Department said Tuesday that "such raids do not weaken the grip of the Fidel Castro regime in Cuba. Indeed they may strengthen it."

Thus the department turned a cold shoulder on the news of an attack Sunday on a Soviet cargo ship and ship in northern Cuba. Exile sources claimed some Russians were killed in an exchange of gunfire.

Antonio Veciana and Cecilio Vazquez, leaders of the exile organizations Alpha 66 and Second National Front of the Escambray, said in a statement issued in New York this morning that the attacks would continue.

"They would not comment directly on the State Department statement, but declared: 'Our struggle belongs only and exclusively to the interests of the Cuban people and therefore we cannot accept that the solution of the Cuban case should be the isolation of our fatherland from the rest of the Americas.'"

The State Department said reports of the latest incident "reinforces our belief that these irresponsible and ineffective forays serve to increase the difficulty of dealing with the unsatisfactory situation which now exists in the Caribbean."

"The U.S. government is investigating fully to determine whether any violation of U.S. law is involved."

In a news conference Tuesday in Washington, spokesmen for the two refugee groups said the raid near Sagua la Grande in Las Villas Province was not launched from U.S. soil. They also argued that such attacks encourage opposition to Castro.

Without mentioning a raid, Havana radio said some wounded sailors had been taken to a hospital. Moscow radio, on the other hand, announced that a raid by exiles had taken place, blamed the United States, but made no mention of any Russian casualties.

JFK Figures Vote to Show Sentiment

By OVID MARTIN

Associated Press Farm Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — President Kennedy said in a recorded statement today that results of a referendum to be held soon on a new wheat control program will show whether farmers want a national policy of farm supply and farm income stabilization.

The statement was sent here for the convention of the National Farmers Union.

The referendum—probably to be conducted late in May—will give the Nation's wheat growers a chance to approve or reject a plan which would impose tighter limitations on production than exist now and would set up a dual price system. Approval by at least two-thirds of those voting is required to make it effective.

Kennedy broadened the issue to include his administration's entire farm policy.

The Farmers Union has been a staunch supporter of those policies and its leaders supported him for president.

The Kennedy farm policies envision broad farmer-approved commodity supply and production control measures to halt surplus output, to improve farm income and to cut costs of farm programs to taxpayers. Present programs have been costing well over $3 billion a year.

Kennedy ran in 1960 on a platform promising stronger federal farm programs. But he has run into strong opposition in efforts to get his policies translated into law. Opposing him have been the American Farm Bureau Federation and many Republicans and some Democrats in Congress.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, who addressed the meeting Tuesday night, predicted victory for the wheat plan—and hence no change in the President's farm policies.

RESIDENTS SURPRISED — With spring only hours away and baseball practice in full swing, surprised residents of Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minn., awoke to find six inches of snow blanketing the area. More than 50 schools in the Twin Cities were closed and traffic moved at a snail's pace.

Two Jailed in Lumber Co. Burglary

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Two men have been arrested in Long Beach, Calif. in connection with the March 19 burglary of Mechanic's Lumber Co. here.

Roy K. Moore, special agent in charge of the Little Rock FBI office, revealed Tuesday the arrest of Raymond Neal, charged with transporting $7,800 in stolen U.S. Savings Bonds from North Little Rock to Wichita, Kan., and Jesse Robert Furr, charged with burglary of the lumber firm.

Moore said Neal was charged by the FBI and Furr by North Little Rock authorities. Furr also has placed against him a federal charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution, Moore said. That information was filed by U.S. Atty. Robert D. Smith Jr. of Little Rock, he said.

Neal had been sought on the federal charge since Feb. 27, Moore said.

Moore said three others have been charged in the case—Alford Earl Brand, 25 and Michale Gleason with receiving and concealing stolen property and Francis Eddie Calvert, 29, with interstate transportation of stolen property. Neal is to be held for action of a federal court at Wichita, Furr is to be returned to Little Rock and the others are in jail at Wichita, Moore said.

Latins to Make Individual Pleas for Aid

by RICHARD G. MASSOCK

SON JOSE, Costa Rica (AP) — Cheered by a U.S. pledge to protect their coasts against Cuban infiltrators, six Central American chief executives make individual pleas to President Kennedy today for economic aid to better the lot of their peoples.

Although advocates of drastic action against Fidel Castro lost out, the Latin presidents generally seemed satisfied and joined Kennedy in a seven-nation "Declaration of Central America" which expressed confidence that the Castro regime will fall soon.

Kennedy promised that the United States will tighten its anti-subversion ring around Cuba with more plane and ship protection of Central America's Caribbean coast.

An authoritative source said that Kennedy, in the private sessions Tuesday, impressed the presidents of Panama, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua with the extent of U.S. military commitments—short of "shooting at Cuba"—which he revealed to them.

Kennedy also promised a multi-million-dollar aid for their program of regional economic and social development. But each president had pet projects of his own and each was allotted a half hour today to plug them.

Kennedy scheduled talks with Francisco Orlich of Costa Rica, ulio Rivera of El Salvador, Miguel Ydigoras of Guatemala, Ramon Villeda Morales of Honduras, Luis Somoza of Nicaragua and Roberto Chirri of Panama.

This afternoon the U.S. president was to address students at the University of Costa Rica before boarding his jet plane for Washington.

To protect their countries against Communist infiltration, the presidents agreed:

1. To ask the Organization of American States for early action to counteract Castro-Communist subversion.

2. To hold a meeting of security officials at the Cabinet level within four weeks—probably at Managua, Nicaragua—to plan measures to halt the flow of their nationals to Cuba and the flow of Communist money, propaganda and arms from Cuba. U.S. officials indicated that Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy may attend.

3. To arrange for more rapid and complete exchange of intelligence on such movements.

The presidents agreed to speed up their fledgling common market which would tie in later with a Latin-American free trade area.

Cancer Group Emphasizes Memorial

The American Cancer Society is planning a special emphasis on "Living" Memorial Program, it was announced today by Mrs. Olin Purcell.

"Making a contribution to the Society's memorial fund is a fitting and practical way to help save the living and commemorate a loved one who has died of cancer or other cause," Mrs. Purcell pointed out.

"The funds of the American Cancer Society, including Memorial gifts, go toward saving lives in the present and many times more in the future through coordinated programs of Education, Research and Service," Mrs. Purcell said.

Memorial contributions are received during all months of the year. A dignified Memorial card is sent to the family of the person in whose memory the gift is made, and an acknowledgment is also sent to the donor.

"I urge thoughtful support of the 'living Memorial Program,'" said Mrs. Purcell, for this support will help those alive today from the tragedy of cancer."

Anyone wishing to make such a memorial contribution may send it Mrs. Olin Purcell 1120 West 7th Memorial Chairman and it will be promptly acknowledged.

DOROTHY DIX

TYRANNICAL FATHER
THREATENS DAUGHTER

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: We have a dictator right here in our home — my husband! We were married 27 years this January, have five children and should be happy. Listen to the facts and judge for yourself.

I have worked on and off all my married life and am still on the job at the age of 51. My husband wants me to continue until I can retire. As the children grew up each had to get out and earn money which was mostly taken from them, as mine was, by their father.

The four oldest children married to get away from him. Now the eldest daughter finds she jumped from the frying pan into the fire. After five years of absolute misery, she left her husband, took their 2-year-old son and went to live with a girl friend.

We asked her to come home so I could help with the child, as darling a boy as ever lived. Her father wanted her for another reason — the money. She found an apartment close by the office and is sure that with the help of a reliable baby-sitter she can swing it. Her divorce is almost final and she has acquired a boy friend whom she must like for they see one another almost every night.

Her Daddy says if she doesn't come home now she need never ask to do so again. He is through with her. He also says that I am not to help her with the baby, even in an emergency. I feel she has a right to a life of her own provided she lives it decently. What is your opinion? — Worried Mother

Dear Worried: Get up on your high horse. Say to your husband, "From now on I shall do what I think best." Let him rant and rave. Remain calm, quiet and determined to pursue your own course.

Deplorable as it is, some husbands, especially the dictator type, must be dealt with firmly. This goes for your daughter too. Having been married and divorced, she is certainly experienced enough to run her own life. Tell your husband she will anyway. And as for your caring for your little grandson, that is your business, not his. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Petty Tyrants."

Dear Helen: My problem is my guardian, my grandmother. She is a strict Pentecostal woman. I was dedicated to God at the age of three weeks. My grandfather seemed as kind as she was hard and gave me everything I wanted as a little girl, even though a minor who didn't earn much.

I was contented until I was six years old when he died. From then on I rebelled, talked back to my grandmother and fought to get my own way. Finally she consented to my marrying when a junior in high. My husband is now in the Service. But he smokes and Grandma has no use for that. I never got the habit; still she blames me for not stopping him. How can I get her love back for in spite of her strict ways, I do love her? — Crying Inside

Dear Crying: Being married, you are now leading an adult life. Meet your grandmother on equal ground as a mature person, not a child. Invite her to your home for a meal. Be affectionate but make it clear that what your husband does is his affair not hers. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "A Considerate Approach."

Have you a problem? Perhaps

The Negro youth was charged with breaking into the Hays home on Capitol Hill Jan. 21, assaulting Mrs. Hays with a pair of scissors and stealing $12. Mrs. Hays suffered a broken wrist when the intruder grabbed her. She was alone in the house at the time.

Traskwood
Rehearing
Is Asked

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Supreme Court has been asked to reconsider its decision that the pastor of a missionary church be restrained from his duties because of doctrinal differences.

Attorneys for Elder A. Z. Dovers, pastor of the Traskwood Missionary Baptist church, filed a brief Tuesday for a rehearing of the decision, claiming the court erred four ways.

The high court said in its decision it had entered the case because the church was autonomous, or ruled solely by its congregation.

The brief said the court erred in using the autonomy of the church to justify interfering in ecclesiastical matters.

because they resulted in a split of the church, that it erred in restraining the pastor, and in assessing court costs against him.

The court's decision came after a minority of the Traskwood congregation filed suit claiming Dovers preached contrary doctrines.

The decision has been soundly attacked by some Baptists, but upheld by others.

Rev. L. D. Foreman, president of the Missionary Baptist Seminary at Little Rock, said the church property had been bought for the purpose of promoting the interests of the Landmark Missionary Baptists and that even the majority of the church membership "cannot change the property from its original purpose."

Dr. Erwin L. McDonald, editor of the Arkansas Baptist Magazine, criticized the decision, saying it was "based on strange reasoning to justify its action."

McDonald said "the implication of the Arkansas court is that separation of church and state breaks down and becomes inoperable in those churches that are self-governed."

The motion for reconsideration does not constitute an appeal, but is merely a request for a court to review its decision.

Crime Probe at Spa Is Indicated

CHICAGO (AP)—Attorney General Robert Kennedy says the Justice Department is investigating organized crime in Hot Springs, Ark., but officials in that area claim no knowledge of it.

Kennedy said specifically, at a news conference here, "The Justice Department is investigating organized crime in Hot Springs, Ark. and some results of that probe are expected within the next six months."

Mayor Dan Wolf of Hot Springs said he had no knowledge of the investigation and he had no comment and Sen. Q. Byrum Hurst said he knew of no Justice Department plans.

"If there's organized crime here, we'd like to know about it," Wolf said.

Hurst said he thought Kennedy would "find that Hot Springs is the cleanest town in the southwest in reference to organized crime."

Kennedy refused to elaborate on his statement, which was tied in with remarks that organized crime in the United States is "far stronger" than it was a decade ago.

He attributed what he termed the growing power of organized crime to the success of criminals "in making arrangements with corrupt public officials in various parts of the country."

Kennedy painted only one bright spot in the picture, the west coast, where he said officials have done the best job of fighting crime.

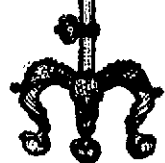

Kennedy hinted that the Justice Department was going to "change its focus of attack" as a result of information brought to light by recent investigations. Again, he would not elaborate.

The attorney general's announcement of the Hot Springs investigation was the latest in a series of events that have called public attention to the spa.

An attempt made during the past session of the General Assembly to have the state police investigate gambling failed.

A federal grand jury last fall looked into gambling in the area, but did not return any indictments.

The spring session of the same jury, for the western district of Arkansas, has called in Owey Madden, former New York underworld figure who has been living

Murder Charge

BRINELEY, Ark. (AP)—Willie Lee Hollister, 36, a Negro, has been bound over to circuit court for trial on a charge of first degree murder in the death of Oscar Davis, 45, also a Negro. Davis was beaten with a home-made peg leg March 9. Hollister, who lived with the victim, waived a preliminary hearing Tuesday.

In Hot Springs quietly since the 1930s, but it hasn't given any hint of the nature of its investigation.

The jury has also heard from Hurst's secretary and from his father.

The jury has been recessed, to be reconvened in April.

Development in Pine Bluff Racial Issue

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Two new facets have developed in the integration situation in Pine Bluff.

Tuesday night a group of about 10 Negroes staged a "stand-in" at the Saenger Theater, seeking admission to a movie, but were denied.

It was learned the same day from members of South Side Baptist Church that its congregation had approved the seating of Negroes in the church, should they elect to attend services.

The pastor of the church, Rev. Ben Elrod, declined to comment on the vote and would neither confirm or deny it.

The action of the South Side church would not be the first of its kind in the city. Dr. L. H. Coleman, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church, said his board of deacons voted last year to seat Negroes in the balcony of the church if they wanted to attend.

Members of four other churches in the community have said Negroes would be seated also.

Congregations at Catholic churches in the city are at times mixed.

The stand-in demonstration was peaceful, but fruitless as the Negros made three attempts to buy tickets.

The demonstrators were refused each time at the ticket window, and referred to Bruce Young, the manager. Each time Young refused to admit them.

Earlier a group of Negroes handed out circulars in the downtown area and at a shopping center in the southwest section of the city, urging Negroes not to shop at stores where members of their race could not get jobs.

Rev. Arthur Robinson, Negro pastor of St. James Methodist Church, A.M.E., asked his congregation Sunday to initiate a selective buying campaign.

Sit-in demonstrations have been conducted at a variety store lunch counter in the city since Feb. 1.

It was reported last week that Negroes had been served at some restaurants in the city.

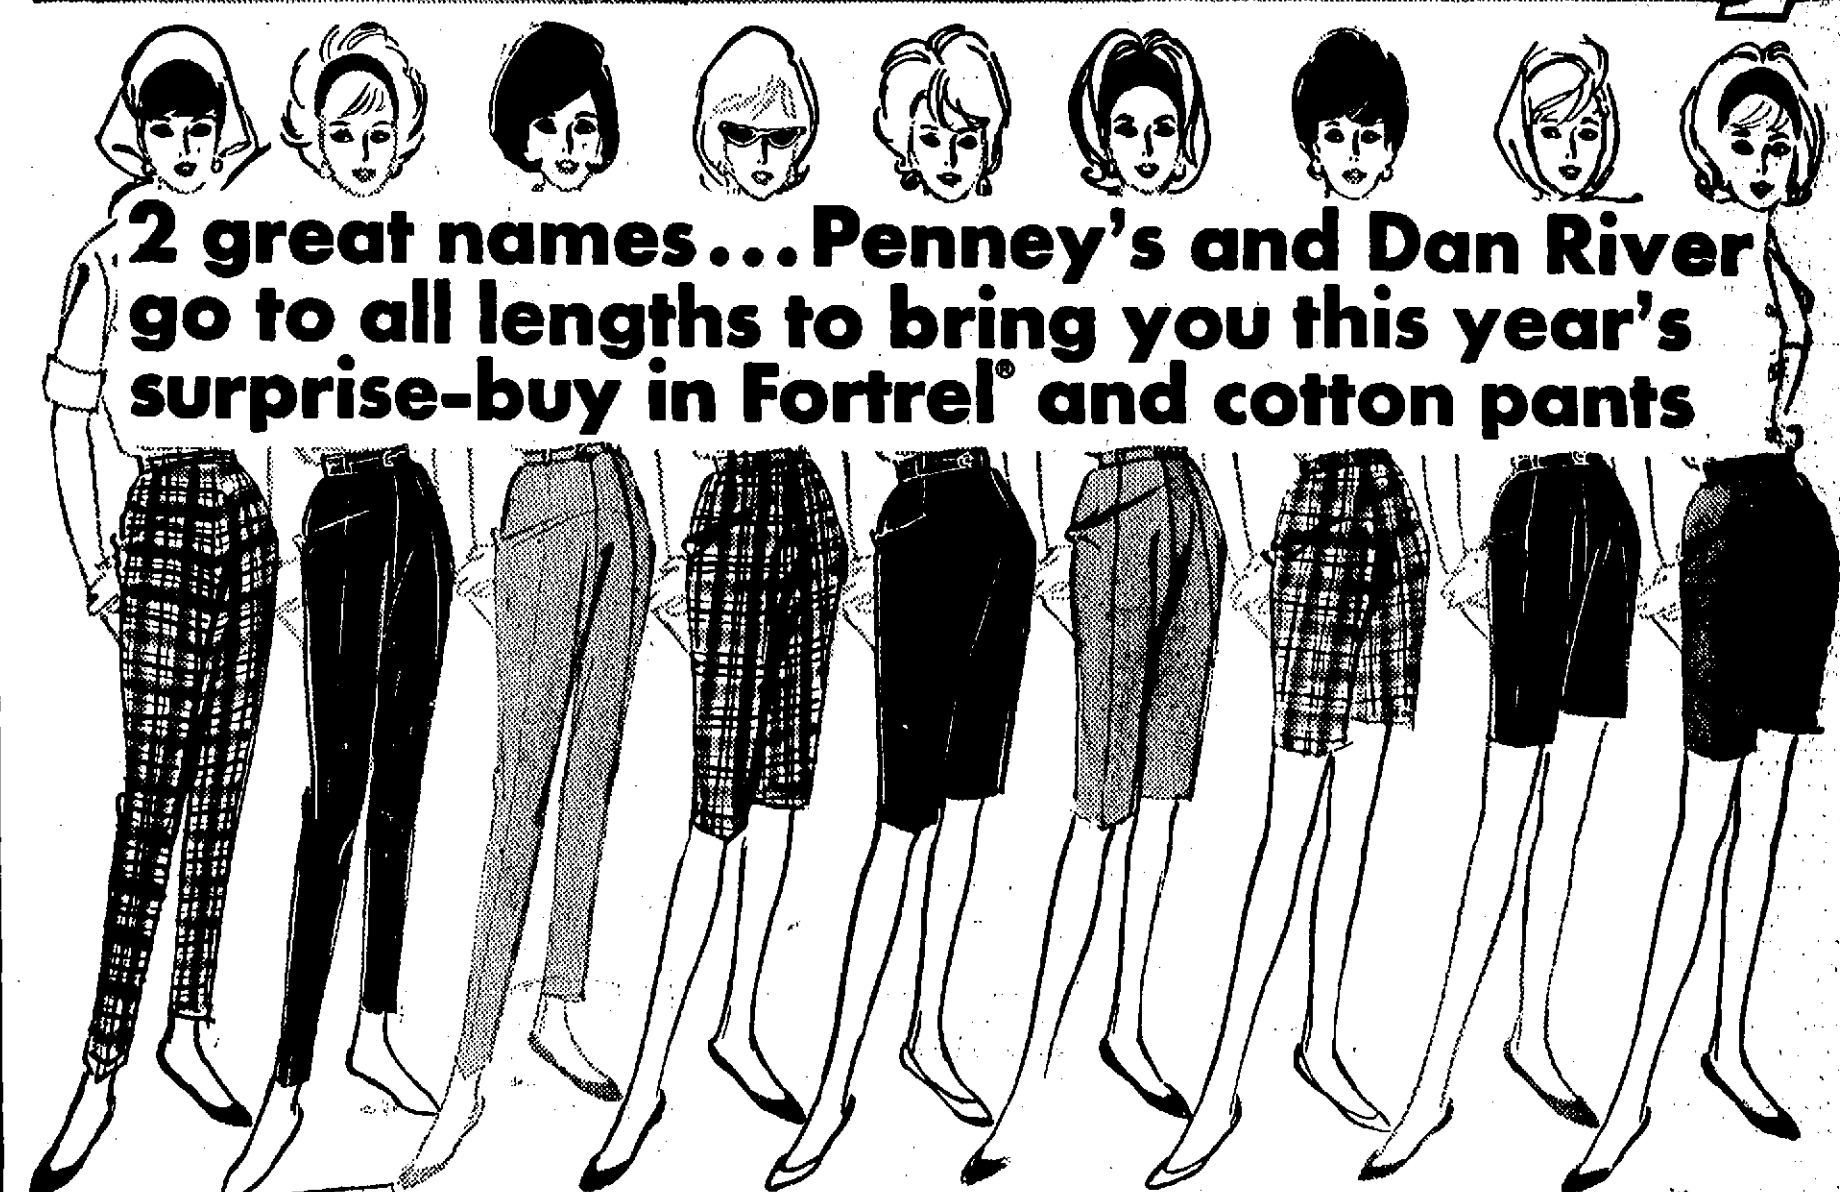

One minister, who declined to be identified, said the movements of the churches stemmed from strong rumors that sit-in demonstrations would be staged at the churches.

But Bill Hanson, 23, field secretary for the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, a group that has been connected with such movements said the organization had no such plans.

State Dept. Suddenly Talks Plain

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department is beginning to lose its reputation for speaking only in diplomatic doubletalk.

Twice in two months it has shown a startling preference for plain words bluntly spoken in criticism of friends and allies.

Prime Minister John Diefenbaker of Canada, who was the target last Jan. 30, and President Joao Goulart of Brazil, who was angered by the most recent blast, may well wonder whether an un-diplomatic new era is opening in U.S. diplomacy.

Closer to home, observers have the impression that these bursts of verbal erring have not always been coldly calculated.

In the Brazilian case, the truth seen in Washington was blurred out in an unpremeditated way. A series of fumbles followed.

The incident began early this month in a secret session of the House Foreign Affairs subcommittee looking into Communist activities in Latin America. Ambassador Lincoln Gordon testified at great length on conditions in Brazil. His report to the committee is said to have been very frank and when he looked it over for possible publication he decided none of it should be made public.

As a substitute, Gordon and other State Department officials prepared a summary statement which was sent to the committee. Among other things, it said that Communists had infiltrated the Brazilian government — a serious accusation for one friendly nation to make against another even though U.S. officials regarded it as a true statement.

The summary, State Department informants say, was supposed to have been sent to the committee as a statement by the department, not by Gordon personally.

Somehow, however, the paper arrived at the committee as a statement from Gordon and was so printed. When the committee released its report last Thursday, news stories reported the Red-in-government charge and it brought immediate expressions of indignation in Brazil.

The State Department first said the statement had been wrongly identified in being attributed to the ambassador. When that brought protest from the subcommittee, the department said

Mississippi to Crest at Helena

MEMPHIS (AP) — The U.S. Weather Bureau predicted here Monday that the Mississippi River would crest at one foot above flood stage at Helena, Ark., on March 31.

The swollen river has been rising rapidly the past two weeks and overflowing into unprotected lowlands in West Tennessee. Flood stage at Helena is 44 feet.

Car Runs Over, Kills Owner

ALTUS, Ark. (AP) — Warren Williams, 40, of Altus, crawled under his car to repair its brakes and was killed when the car rolled over him four miles south of here Monday.

Sheriff Bob Pritchard said Williams had parked the car on a slope on a county road after the brakes had given him trouble.

Lester Dixon, also of Altus, was with Williams. He walked almost a mile for help, but found Williams dead when he returned, Pritchard said.

The view was shared by the department and by Gordon though the statement should have been a departmental one.

Finally Undersecretary of State George Ball issued a statement deploring the whole affair and emphasizing basic U.S.-Brazilian friendship. In Brazil, aides of President Goulart said he was satisfied and it appeared that the matter would be dropped and Gordon would be able to return to his post. It also appeared that Brazil would definitely get substantial U.S. financial assistance.

Qualified informants insist that there was nothing deliberate or calculated about the criticism directed at Brazil. It became public by misadventure.

But in the Canadian affair, there is no doubt that the action was deliberate.

The miscalculation in that instance was that the reaction in Canada was much more violent than expected.

Diefenbaker had refused to accept U.S. nuclear warheads for anti-aircraft and airborne weapons equipped to handle them in defense of the North American continent and Western Europe.

Diefenbaker blasted back, accusing the United States of intrusion in Canadian affairs. A great political storm arose in Ottawa and Diefenbaker lost a confidence vote in Parliament. He faces general elections next month with his non-nuclear policy an issue. So are Canada's relations with the United States.

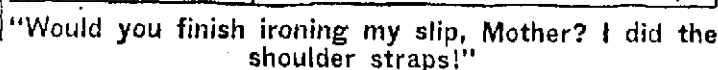

President Kennedy is known to have been annoyed by the failure of the State Department to realize the angry reaction which its statement might very well get in Canada.

Looking back, some officials thought that the whole thing might have been more diplomatically written. Secretary of State Dean Rusk told a news conference he regretted it if the tone of

Liston Has to Take an Examination

By BEN FUNK

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Despite stormy objections by his advisor, heavyweight champion Sonny Liston must come back from Chicago Friday for an official examination to determine whether he is unable to fight Floyd Patterson.

The Miami Beach Boxing Commission ordered the champion's return after a hearing Tuesday night in which Liston's Miami physician, Dr. Duke Baird, said he had no conclusive evidence that Liston had torn the cartilage in his left knee.

Jack Nilon, Liston's advisor, protested the decision bitterly, but failed to sway chairman Fred Aaronson and other commissioners.

Liston took off suddenly for his home in Chicago, after weeks of controversy and conflicting statements over his knee and the state of his health. Nilon requested Tuesday night's hearing and asked for an indefinite postponement of the fight with Patterson, now scheduled for April 10 after a postponement from April 4.

"I tried to cover the injury up," Nilon said. "When Liston got on that plane for Chicago, he weighed 235. If there is an operation, it will be eight weeks before he can start training again. Then it will take several months to get him in shape. There is no way of saying when he can fight again."

Liston weighed 214 when he knocked out Patterson in the first round in Chicago last September. Dr. Baird said that when Liston first went to him, there was a swelling of the knee joint, indicating a strain on the ligaments.

"The injury responded well to ligament treatment and I thought it would be all right for him to resume training," the doctor said.

Orioles Make It 10 in Row on Glory Road

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Baltimore Orioles, traveling along baseball's exhibition trail undefeated in 10 games, seem to have located the glory road they suddenly stepped off in September 1960.

In 1960 the Orioles battled the New York Yankees nip and tuck before losing out for the American League pennant. They were in first place on Sept. 9 and on Sept. 15 were still virtually tied for the top with an 83-58 record to 82-57 for the Yanks. Then came a disastrous series with the Yanks and the Orioles finished second, 8 games behind with an 89-65 record.

The Orioles slipped to a third-place finish in 1961, 14 games back of the Yankees, and last year dropped to seventh place, 19 games out of first.

Now with Luis Aparicio, Al Smith and Pete Ward obtained in an off-season trade with the Chicago White Sox, a sharp reversal seems evident.

It was a triple by shortstop Aparicio that started the Orioles on the way to their 10th straight victory Tuesday, 4-3 over the White Sox at Sarasota. It triggered a 3-run first inning and the Sox never caught up.

The world champion Yankees continued at the bottom of the AL standings with a 3-6 mark. They rapped out 15 hits but nevertheless lost to Kansas City 9-5 at Bradenton.

Al Kaline's four hits and the pitching of Hank Aguirre led the Detroit Tigers to their fifth straight triumph, 8-3 over the Los Angeles Dodgers at Lakeland. Aguirre worked six innings and has not yielded an earned run in 13 innings. Before the game the Tigers announced that pitcher Frank Lary had signed his contract.

Cleveland smashed out 18 hits and crushed Houston, the National League exhibition leader, 13-3 at Tucson.

Cincinnati, helped by John Edwards' 2-run homer, nipped Minnesota 5-4 at Orlando and Norm Larker's ninth-inning single drove in the winning run for Milwaukee as the Braves edged Pittsburgh 7-6 at Fort Myers.

Lee Thomas homered and drove in another run with a single to lead the Los Angeles Angels to a 5-1 victory over Boston at Palm Springs, Calif.

Pitching dominated the other games in which the Chicago Cubs defeated San Francisco 3-2 at Mesa and St. Louis whipped the New York Mets 7-3 at St. Petersburg. Four Cub pitchers fanned 15 Giant batters, seven of them by southpaw Dick Ellsworth in the first three innings.

Another left-hander, Curt Simmons of the Cardinals, twirled 5 hitless innings against the Mets, then yielded two scratch singles before finishing his 8-inning stint.

Figures Oregon State Won't be Out of Place

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Coach Forrest Twogood of Southern California, a fellow who should know, says the Beavers of Oregon State won't be one bit out of place in the company of collegiate basketball's big three—Cincinnati, Duke and Chicago Loyola—in the NCAA championships this weekend.

"This is a real good, strong, sound team," Twogood said as he and the rest of Derbytown looked ahead to Friday's semifinals at massive Freedom Hall.

"Mel Counts, their 7-foot boy, has come along wonderfully; Terry Baker is a great team leader and a fine player; Steve Pauly is a strong boy who can shoot the eyes out of the basket, and those three sophomores—Jim Kraus, Frank Peters and Jim Jarvis—get the job done."

"Slats Gill is a wonderful coach and has really shaped up the team. I saw that game Saturday night against Arizona State and the way Oregon State handled them was remarkable."

Oregon State, with a 22-7 record, spilled fourth-ranked Arizona State 83-65 in the final of the Far West regional at Provo, Utah, to qualify for the national semifinals Friday along with Cincinnati, Duke and Loyola, the teams ranked 1-2-3 in the final Associated Press poll.

The Beavers play Cincinnati, the NCAA champion the last two years, in the second game of Friday's doubleheader that opens with a 730 p.m., EST, collision between Duke and Loyola.

Twogood, whose Trojans split a pair with Oregon State this season, gives the Beavers a chance against anybody.

"I haven't seen Cincinnati this season and I know they're very good with those four boys back from a year ago," Twogood said. "But don't worry about Oregon State."
